BASIC POINTS YOU SHOULD KNOW

⚠ ONCE A BOOSTER....ALWAYS A BOOSTER! ⚠

Benefits or Special Arrangements

Athletics representatives may NOT provide any benefits or special arrangements to an enrolled student-athlete, his or her parents, relatives or friends. Please contact the Compliance Office at 337-482-5195 if you have a question regarding a specific situation.

Donation Requests

Please contact the Compliance Office at 337-482-5195 for any questions regarding the donation of equipment or athletic apparel. All donations must go through the Compliance Office.

No Contact With Prospects

Athletics representatives of an NCAA Division I institution are prohibited from making in-person on- or off-campus recruiting contacts, as well as written or telephone communications with a prospect or the prospect's parents or relatives. If a prospect initiates a telephone contact with you, or you have an inadvertent face-to-face encounter with a prospect or their parents or relatives, DO NOT enter into a recruiting conversation. Also, under such circumstances, refer questions about the athletics program to the athletics department and advise the appropriate coach of the contact.

Pre-Established Relationship

Athletics representatives who have pre-established relationships (relationship began before the student was being recruited by the institution) with prospects, their parents and relatives may continue normal contacts with the understanding that such contacts are not made for recruiting purposes and are not arranged by members of the institution's coaching staff.

Gambling

NCAA rules do not permit student -athletes or athletic department staff members to knowingly:

- Provide information to individuals involved in organized gambling activities concerning intercollegiate athletics competition.
- Solicit or accept a bet on any intercollegiate team.
- Participate in any gambling activity that involves intercollegiate or professional athletics through a bookmaker, a parlay card, tournament pool or any other method employed by organized gambling.

ARE YOU A REPRESENTATIVE OF ATHLETICS INTERESTS?

You are considered a “Representative of Athletics Interests” if you:

- Hold, or have ever held season tickets; or
- Have been a member of any organization promoting Ragin’ Cajuns athletics; or
- Contribute to the Athletics Department or its booster organization (e.g. RCAF); or
- Have assisted or are assisting in providing benefits (e.g., summer employment) to enrolled student-athletes; or
- Promote Ragin’ Cajuns Athletics in any way.

Once you become a Representative of Athletics Interests,

YOU retain this status FOREVER!

DEFINITIONS YOU SHOULD KNOW

Prospective Student-Athlete

A “prospect” is a student who has started classes for the ninth grade. A student who has not started classes for the ninth grade becomes a “prospect” if the student receives any benefits that the institution does not provide to all prospective students in general.

In men’s basketball, a prospective student-athlete is an individual who has started classes for the seventh grade. The University of Louisiana at Lafayette requests that you treat ALL students as prospects.

Student-Athlete

A student-athlete is a student whose enrollment was solicited (i.e. recruited) by a member of the athletics staff or other representative of athletics interests with a view toward the students’ ultimate participation in the intercollegiate athletics program.

Contact

Any face-to-face encounter between a prospect or the prospect’s parent or legal guardian and an institutional staff member or athletics representative during which any dialogue occurs in excess of an exchange of a greeting.

Recruiting

Recruiting is any solicitation of a prospect or the prospect’s family by a University staff member or by a representative of athletics interests for the purpose of securing the prospect’s enrollment at the university and/ or participation in the intercollegiate athletic program.

REMEMBER: ALWAYS ASK
BEFORE YOU ACT!

WHAT CAN YOU DO FOR ENROLLED STUDENT-ATHLETES?

Benefits or Special Arrangements

Athletics Representatives may NOT provide any benefits or special arrangements to an enrolled student-athlete, his or her parents, relatives, or friends.

Employment for Enrolled Student-Athletes

Employment for enrolled student-athletes may not be arranged by Athletics Representatives without first receiving prior approval from the Compliance Office at 337-482-5195. Compensation must be based on work actually performed and at a rate commensurate with the going rate in the locality for services of like character.

Rules Governing Student-Athlete Participation in Promotional Activities

Use of a student-athlete’s name, picture or appearance to support any charitable, educational or nonprofit promotional activities requires the signature of the student-athlete and the authorized representative and requires written approval from the Director of Athletics. Forms must be obtained from the Compliance Office at 337-482-5195.

Employment for Prospects

Athletics Representatives may arrange employment for prospective student-athletes. The prospect must have signed a National Letter of Intent, and the prospect may not begin the job until after completion of the prospect’s senior year in high school. Compensation must be based on work actually performed and at a rate commensurate with the going rate in the locality for services of like character. Do not provide any benefits (e.g., transportation or meals) for prospective student-athletes that you employ unless the benefits are provided for all other employees. Please contact the Compliance Office at 337-482-5195 if you are interested in employing a student-athlete.

Occasional Meals

Athletics representatives may provide an enrolled student-athlete or an entire team with an occasional family meal. The occasional meal may be catered, must be provided in an individual’s home, and must be restricted to special occasions. Transportation may be provided to the student-athletes by the athletics representative ONLY if the meal function is at the home of that representative. Forms must be obtained from the Compliance Office at 337-482-5195 in order to provide an occasional meal to an enrolled student-athlete or an entire team.
